Alexandria announces Waterfront Community Meeting #5 at the Lee Center on Thursday, May 8, 2014

The City of Alexandria, VA will hold Waterfront Community Meeting #5 on Thursday, May 8, 2014, 6:30 – 8:30 PM at the City's Lee Center, 1108 Jefferson Street, as part of Alexandria's Waterfront Landscape and Flood Mitigation Design Project.

An updated Alternative design, reflecting the Outcome of the City of Alexandria-ODBC Negotiations, for the Core Area of the Waterfront which extends from Duke Street to Queen Street, will be presented for community review and input.

This meeting is the last of a five-part Waterfront Community Meeting Series for Phase I of the Landscape and Flood Mitigation Design Project. The Community Meeting Series will be followed by Public Hearings on Phase I of the design on June 3rd and June 14th by the Planning Commission and City Council, respectively. The community is invited to the June public hearings.

Phase I of the Landscape and Flood Mitigation Design Project will result in a schematic for the Waterfront at 15-30% design, building on the illustrative concept for the Waterfront that is included in the January 2012 City Council-approved Waterfront Small Area Plan.
